FANTASTIC FARCE FINISHES THIS WEEK

After the first week's run, audiences have been giving us their verdicts: "This is the funniest play I have ever seen." "Just watching the show is hard work, imagine what it's like for the actors!" "There were moments in the play so funny, I couldn't even bear to watch!" "We saw a professional show in Sydney last week, but this was heaps better."

If there is a play you must see before you die, this is it. Miss it and you'll kick yourself. See the story of bigamist taxi driver John Smith with two wives he must prevent from meeting each other, and his son to one wife, and daughter to the other who meet on the net and want to meet in person. With 2 million subscribers in London, John's daughter just happens to log on to John's son. If they get together, John's fantastic situation of two wives might just be over, and if they meet, there's no future for them, as they've both got the same father.

At first, things go well. Only a few lies are needed. But naturally, it doesn't remain this way. To keep the story going results in more lies, and some incredibly ponderous phone calls. The son actually visits the daughter's house and desperately tries to see her, but with John, helped reluctantly by his lodger Stanley and fabricating even more untruths, this doesn't happen. More and more lies are the fare of the day and eventually they become so ludicrous that even John and Stanley have trouble believing them! The antics they get up to, to keep the son and daughter apart will have you rolling in the aisles with laughter, and you'll go home feeling absolutely great. Laughter is indeed, the best medicine.

Many shows are hyped up as being brilliant, but this one genuinely is. You must get along to see it, but we only have four more shows to go, Thurs 18th at 8pm; Fri 19th at 8pm and Sat 20th at 2pm & 8pm. The show is on at Wyong Memorial Hall, Anzac Ave, Wyong.
