DAYLIGHT SAVING

by Nick Enright

NOVEMBER 1994

DAVID HOBBS - Director

David has practised and studied the art of stage direction for over 25 years and is particularly proud of the opportunity he once had to work with Robin Lovejoy of the Old Tote, one of Australia's leading stage directors during the 60s and 70s.

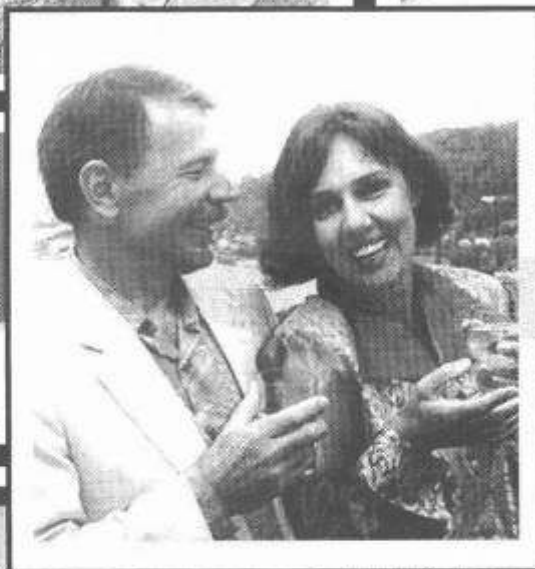

David has directed for some of Sydney's leading community theatres in the past but since coming to live on the Central Coast has worked with Woy Woy Little Theatre, The Fringe Theatre Company at Laycock St and Wyong Drama Group. His last directorial effort for WDG was Accommodations, seen late last year.

"I am particularly proud of this one. Daylight Saving has a deceptively fine, recent Australian script with interesting opportunities for the actors. I have had a great team to work with and I think I can say that we've all got a lot of satisfaction from the result."

CAST

POLLYANNA MURPHY - Felicity

Polly is one of the coast's leading actors and has appeared extensively with Gosford Musical Society and the Wyong Drama Group. Patrons will long remember her magnificent performance as Elizabeth in the Fringe Theatre Company's recent production of The Crucible at Laycock St.

BILL HAYDON - Tom

Bill has appeared with most of the coast's leading theatre groups and has a growing list of professional credits as well. Patrons will remember him in the pivotal role of Proctor for the Fringe's recent production of The Crucible. Bill featured in last year's WDG production of Christmas Day.

ANGELA BAIN - Stephanie

Angela will be remembered for her previous WDG appearances, including "Fifi, Queen of the Feathers" in The Maltese Mouse, Janie in Not Now Darling and only last year in Accommodations, as the madcap Pat. Angela has a rare gift for comedy and truly shines in this delightful part.

LASZLO WEIDLICH - Josh

Laszlo has many years of experience with WDG and has appeared in countless memorable roles. Patrons will remember his recent appearance as Banquo in Shakespeare's Macbeth and as the bewildered husband, Bob in last year's production of Accommodations.

PAM CAMPBELL - Bunty

Pam has numerous stage credits to her name including an award winning performance for the recent production of The Plot Sickens at the Newcastle Festival of One Act Plays. Pam is also a stage director and film script writer - receiving an award at the recent inaugural Central Coast Film Festival.

SIMON STEGGLES - Jason

Aside from a cameo appearance in our last production, Macbeth, Simon is new to our group. While this role represents one of his first substantial stage performances, we think he has what it takes to work regularly in professional theatre. We know that you will be delighted by this rare talent.

WHY NOT BECOME A MEMBER OF WYONG DRAMA GROUP?

For a small annual subscription, you can join the Wyong Drama Group. It doesn't matter if you are not interested in acting. There are literally dozens of interesting activities to be involved in.

Why not try your hand at stage design, direction, set construction, lighting, sound, production management, costume co-ordination, props, catering or many other equally challenging fields.

The group produces at least three major productions during the year and a number of smaller projects, regularly participating in competitive festivals around the state. We meet in our "greenroom" at the rear of this auditorium on the first Tuesday of each month.
