Neil Simon is one of America's most prolific, successful and popular playwrights and has written numerous plays and musicals over the years. His first play was Come Blow Your Horn in 1961 quickly followed by his first musical Little Me. Other well known Neil Simon works include Barefoot in the Park, Sweet Charity, They're Playing Our Song, The Odd Couple and Plaza Suite, the last two having been presented by Wyong Drama Group in previous years.

Barney Cashman is middle aged, married and the owner of a fish restaurant in Manhattan. He wants to join the sexual revolution before it is too late. On three different afternoons over the course of a year, Barney brings women to his mother's apartment. The first is Elaine Nevazio, a somewhat attractive women in her late thirties but with an air of desperation about her. She likes cigarettes, whiskey and men other than her husband. The second is Bobbi Michele, an actress who Barney discovers is not only goofy but also paranoid. And finally Jeanette Fisher the wife of his best mate and a desperately depressed woman.

An experienced cast directed by Brian Fitzsimmons will be certain to entertain and amuse.
