'TRIVIAL PURSUITS'

Directed by Margaret McGowan

April 22nd to May 1st 1993.

BY ARRANGEMENT WITH DOMINIE

DIRECTOR'S MESSAGE

Written originally for the British stage "Trivial Pursuits" was about the goings on in a Welsh amateur musical society, the Trealaw and Districts Light Opera Company. For this Wyong Drama Group production we have transferred it to a local backyard barbecue and the company has become the T.R.A.L.A.L.A.S. - The Tuggerah Region And Lakes Area Light-opera Amateur Society - 20 years old this year! (Relevant press cuttings etc. are on display at the back of the hall. Next meeting, Tuggerah Scout Hall, 8 p.m. June 31).

In its original form, "Trivial Pursuits" like so many British comedies depended for much of its humour on a mock-the-yokels approach. We decided that as well as changing accent and setting we would remove this air of condescension and free up the characters to be real people rather than two dimensional stereotypes. My heartfelt thanks to the cast for their effort in taking the play these further steps, and to the backstage team which gave us the time and space in which to take them

Welcome to the 20th Annual President's Barbecue meeting of the Tuggerah Region And Lakes Area Light-opera Amateur Society. And remember, new members are always welcome!
