Re: No Sex Please, We're British a lot of fun!
Dt: 5 October 2009

At this time of the year, the cast of Wyong Drama Group is heavily into rehearsal under the expert guidance of director Millie Sampson for their November production of No Sex, Please-We're British. This is yet another riotous comedy guaranteed to have you rolling in the aisles, and opens in one month's time.

The play is the story of the newlyweds Peter and Frances Hunter. Frances (Kelly Humphries) is enjoying their time together in their new flat above the bank and is very proud of her husband Peter's (Stephen McDonald) recent promotion to Bank Manager. The thought of her mother-in-law Eleanor coming to stay for a few days is ruffling a few feathers, however.

Peter is trying to smooth over with his new wife the visit from his mother. Eleanor (Jeanette McCurry) seems very keen to invite the distinguished, smooth but socially adept Leslie Bromhead (Laszlo Weidlich) the Senior Bank Manager to dinner! Then an unexpected delivery starts a kaleidoscope of hilarious events and people into the equation.

The delightful Brian Runnicles (Duncan Mitchell) is one victim of circumstance who is regularly seen wearing looks ranging from nonplussed to downright panic-stricken. Mr Needham (John Wright) is the epitome of conversation and respectability as the bank inspector. Barbara (Jenny Sharrock) and Susan (Sally Bartley) contribute a fascinating dimension to the scenario. Superintendent Paul's (Barry Sampson) unexpected visits add to the mounting confusion. Delivery Man (Les Besseny) acts as a vital link in the unexpected chain of events. No Sex Please, We're British is the archetypal British farce that Wyong Drama Group audiences are known to love as their favourite type of show.

As usual the show will be performed at Wyong Memorial Hall in Anzac Avenue, Wyong opening on Thursday 5th November at 8pm. There are then seven more shows, Friday 6th at 8pm, Saturday 7th at 2pm and 8pm, Thursday 12th at 8pm, Friday 13th at 8pm Saturday 14th at 2pm and closing night on 14th November at 8pm. The cost is $17 for the Thursday nights and Saturday Matinees, and $20 on the Friday and Saturday nights.

To book, you can phone WDG's booking line on 4353-4353 from 9am to 9pm which is now open. For more information, see the drama group's website at www.wyongdramagroup.com.au.
