

FOR THIS PERFORMANCE, THE RÔLE OF
"BARBARA" WILL BE PLAYED BY:

Sara Brown

This is Sara's return to WDG after a long break to pursue an academic and dancing career. Initially disappointed that she missed the auditions for No Sex Please, We're British, she was very happy when asked to play Barbara for the Sunday matinee. Sara did her first performance with WDG in 1999 as Tessa (the female lead) in Hot Taps, after which she did some minor roles in other shows including Positively Vile (2000). Sara is a ballroom dancer. After competing and performing for over 10 years nationally and internationally, and in TV shows like Strictly Dancing, she has started teaching dancing on the Coast and is looking forward to getting back into theatre.

FOR THIS PERFORMANCE, THE RÔLE OF
"BARBARA" WILL BE PLAYED BY:

Sara Brown

This is Sara's return to WDG after a long break to pursue an academic and dancing career. Initially disappointed that she missed the auditions for No Sex Please, We're British, she was very happy when asked to play Barbara for the Sunday matinee. Sara did her first performance with WDG in 1999 as Tessa (the female lead) in Hot Taps, after which she did some minor roles in other shows including Positively Vile (2000). Sara is a ballroom dancer. After competing and performing for over 10 years nationally and internationally, and in TV shows like Strictly Dancing, she has started teaching dancing on the Coast and is looking forward to getting back into theatre.

FOR THIS PERFORMANCE, THE RÔLE OF
"BARBARA" WILL BE PLAYED BY:

Sara Brown

This is Sara's return to WDG after a long break to pursue an academic and dancing career. Initially disappointed that she missed the auditions for No Sex Please, We're British, she was very happy when asked to play Barbara for the Sunday matinee. Sara did her first performance with WDG in 1999 as Tessa (the female lead) in Hot Taps, after which she did some minor roles in other shows including Positively Vile (2000). Sara is a ballroom dancer. After competing and performing for over 10 years nationally and internationally, and in TV shows like Strictly Dancing, she has started teaching dancing on the Coast and is looking forward to getting back into theatre.